

Simon Grey CV

s.grey@mauricebyers.com +61 2 8233 0300

Education

- 2013 Bachelor of Laws, with honours (Macquarie University)
- Top of subject in advanced torts; Jessup moot team competitor.
- 2009 Bachelor of Arts (The University of Sydney)

Qualifications

- May 2019 Admitted as a barrister, NSW
- May 2013 Admitted as a solicitor, NSW

Legal Career

- May 2019 – date Barrister, Maurice Byers Chambers, Sydney
Practising in civil and criminal law. Read under Nicholas Broadbent.
- Aug 2018 – Apr 2019 Associate, Makinson d'Apice Lawyers, Sydney
Advised and appeared in NSW Courts on behalf of NSW Police and private medical practitioners in civil proceedings and Coronial Inquests.
- Mar 2017 – Mar 2018 Solicitor (NSW admitted), Clifford Chance LLP, London
Advised in Commercial Litigation, Dispute Resolution & Risk Management (as part of the legal team in Various v News Group Newspapers Group Litigation).
- 2014 – 2017 Associate, McCabe Curwood, Sydney
Advised and appeared for NSW Health – Local Health Districts; Ambulance & individual employees – in NSW Courts (medical negligence); NCAT (administrative and privacy related) and Coronial Inquests.
- 2011 – 2014 Solicitor, Carroll & O'Dea Lawyers, Sydney
Advised and appeared for plaintiffs in a range of common law tort actions and defendants in institutional historical abuse claims (NSW, ACT and VIC).

Pro Bono

I participate in the NSW Bar Association's Duty Barrister Scheme and from time to time do pro bono work for Marrickville Legal Centre.

Please contact me for a list of select cases by area.